2010-2011 Annual Report

Letter from the Chair of the Board of Directors

Mike Sutton

Dear Friends,

How important are numbers? We do think the fact that over 150,000 people experienced performances at the Arts Center last year is impressive, but just as important is the level of satisfaction that each individual had—whether attending a concert; participating in a school show, master class or professional development workshop; supporting a fundraising event; visiting with friends at a pre-show party; learning something new in a business seminar; or simply strolling through our sculpture courtyard. Across the board, we heard that our programs were joyful and instructive, piqued curiosity and enriched patrons' lives, and broadened their horizons.

As the year began, plans were made to celebrate another important number at the Center—our 30th anniversary. We took stock of our beginnings and prepared to share this momentous birthday with the community that has always been the key to our success. We previewed the celebration at The Art of Dessert, hosted in the newly renovated Lytton Rancheria Grand Lobby! And, together we shared a round of applause for the debut of our award-winning video that so compellingly tells the story of all that this Arts Center brings to the community.

The year brought more than 120 performances to our stage featuring the biggest stars in music, dance, theater, comedy, family programming and speaker events. We explored jazz with the great Wynton Marsalis; had a thrilling cultural exchange with the Bayanihan Philippine Dance Company; stepped back to the 1920s with Berlin's Max Raabe; soaked up the unprecedented vision and mastery of artists such as Tony Bennett, Garrison Keillor and John Legend; and thrilled with the kids at Cirque Mechanic's "Boom Town" and more.

As our schools faced deeper-than-ever budget cuts, we stepped in to help fill the gap and saw an increase in attendance for our Education Through the Arts programs. Each bus load of children filing hand-in-hand into our theater brought smiles and a reminder of why we continue to give from our pocket books and our hearts.

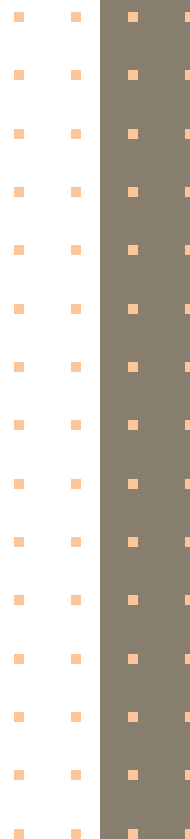

Even with the clouds of recession upon us, we saw many acts of incredible giving and a collective effort to make each dollar count. The national downturn in ticket sales and the loss of Santa Rosa Christian School made it an especially challenging year. I am proud to say that we worked together to reduce the impact and are continuing these cost savings programs.

With the solid base that we have built through the leadership of our passionate staff, dedicated board and committed patrons and creative artists, the future is bright and I am confident the Arts Center will continue its vigor. The road map for the years ahead is exciting; it is informed by our strategic plan, and fired by human imagination and ingenuity to meet the demands and desires of our changing and diverse community. None of this would be possible without the support and backing of you, our community, and for that we are deeply grateful.

Warm regards,

Mike Sutton
