Music for Schools

Celebrating 20 years! LBC’s Music for Schools lending library that provides musical instruments to students who cannot afford them. We loan instruments to students through their music teachers for the entire school year completely free of charge. The library includes hundreds of band, orchestral, percussion, and Orff instruments. There are also tone chimes and a parachute for music teachers to borrow. Now entering its 20th year, Music for Schools has enabled hundreds of students in the North Bay to learn and explore the gift of music.
